

Sanyo Chemical Consecutively Selected for the FTSE Blossom Japan Index and FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index

Sanyo Chemical announced that it has been selected for the FTSE Blossom Japan Index and the FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index. FTSE Blossom Japan Index marks the second consecutive year of selection since June 2023. Additionally, we have been selected for the FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index for consecutive terms since December 2023.

The FTSE Blossom Japan Index and FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index are the indices created by global index provider FTSE Russell. These indices reflect the performance of Japanese companies that demonstrate outstanding Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices.

The indices are considered to be important investment criteria for Investors around. They have been also adopted by the Government Pension Investment Fund (GPIF), which is the world's largest public pension fund, as a benchmark for ESG passive management.

Sanyo Chemical has been included in four ESG indices that apply to Japanese companies and are adopted by GPIF: FTSE Blossom Japan Index, FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index, and S&P/JPX Carbon Efficient Index.

Based on our corporate mission to "Establish a better society through our corporate activities," We are working on sustainable management that considers sustainability in the environment, society, and economy. We will continuously work on sustainable management to contribute to the realization of a sustainable society and disclose them to improve corporate value.
